

Please do not continue with legislation that would diminish the effectiveness of the State of Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. Indiana's law has allowed me freedom and privacy in my own home. I no longer received as many as ten to fifteen calls on any given night from "unwanted" solicitors.